"Kriegspiel"

Learn and Practice Civil War Battle Strategy through War Games at the Museum of the Confederacy

Richmond, VA: Have you ever wanted to step into the boots of General Robert E. Lee or Commander-in-Chief Jefferson Davis? Wanted to experience first-hand the trials and tribulations of warfare and the difficulty of moving tens of thousands of men? On Saturdays, January 19, April 19, July 19, and October 18, 2008 come join the Museum of the Confederacy's Kriegspiel! Each program will start with a brief "war college" on fighting tactics of the Civil War from Senior Curator and Director of Collections Robert Hancock. Then let the war games begin! Names will be drawn to determine sides and each army will have certain objectives and resources. Battle it out all day and see who goes home victorious!

This program is open to anyone over the age of 12. The price is $20 for members, $25 for non-members. It is an all day event from 10 a.m. until 4 p.m. with lunch included. Space is limited and reservations are required. Register online at www.moc.org or call Linda Lipscomb at (804) 649-1861 ext. 32 for more information.

The Museum of the Confederacy is a private, nonprofit educational institution. The Museum and White House are located in downtown Richmond in the historic Court End neighborhood. Free parking is available in the MCV/VCU Hospitals Visitor/Patient parking deck adjacent to the Museum.
